Name of the register

Niku Creativen Customer Register

Purpose of use

The Register's data is used in Niku Creative's customer relationship management, invoicing, communications, and marketing.

Data content

The Register lists the email addresses of the people who have subscribed to the mailing list. In some cases, it also includes the subscriber's first and last name. Customer data also include each customer's invoicing information, i.e. mailing address, business identity code, and past orders and invoices.

Regular information sources

The personal data included in the Register contains information that website visitors have provided on a subscription form or that customers/collaboration partners have provided as a result of collaboration.

Data disclosures

The Register's data are not disclosed outside Niku Creative.

Protection

The data recorded in the Register are confidential, and third parties do not have access to them. The Register is electronic, and technical means are employed to protect it.

Right to access data

Data subjects can check the data we have recorded or request this data be deleted by clicking on a link in any of our mailing list emails or by filling in a form on our website.
